Directions
This image is you holding the dollar sign. Make it graphically reflect your beliefs about money. This could be words, images, pictures, magazine clippings, emojis, or anything else you come up with. Feel free to add a face, hat, or shoes for some style points.

Having interviewed your parents/guardians, and spent some time analyzing your own beliefs about money, write a one page summary addressing:

1. Your fundamental beliefs about money and where they come from.
2. How you think your beliefs might or might not evolve.
3. The role you expect money will play in your life.
